Tucson Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Welcomes Eight Mayors from Two Countries.

Tucson, Arizona - The Tucson Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (THCC) will host the first ever Mayors' Summit on May 19, 2022. THCC will welcome eight mayors from across southern Arizona and Sonora at the Tucson Convention Center Music Hall. This event will focus on a myriad of topics that may include economic development, sustainability, infrastructure, trade, and tourism.

This ticketed event will begin at 2:30pm and will end at 4:30 followed by a reception in Eckbo Plaza. The Mayors' Summit is open to the public and your tickets can be purchased starting today at TucsonHispanicChamber.org.

Rob Elias, President/CEO says, "Conversations amongst these leaders are vital to the region. They have the ability to cultivate more meaningful relationships that can create greater opportunities in so many areas including economic growth, increased trade opportunities, increased levels of tourism, and an overall better understanding of how our relationship affects each other."

TICKET INFORMATION:

Tickets for The Mayors' Summit purchased by May 10 will cost $20 per person and tickets purchased after May 10 will cost $40.

For more information about this event, please visit the Hispanic Chamber at their website (TucsonHispanicChamber.org).

About the Tucson Hispanic Chamber of Commerce:

Founded in 1989, the Tucson Hispanic Chamber has become one of the country's largest Hispanic-led business advocacy organizations. The mission of our organization is to foster economic and societal conditions that allows both commerce and consumer to thrive in the bicultural region of the Arizona-Mexico border.
